

FAIR FACTS: TEXAS PLAINS TRAIL REGION

The State Fair of Texas (<https://www.BigTex.com>), is one of America's largest, longest (since 1886), and most historic state fairs, and provides a unique venue for the promotion of heritage tourism as an important Texas product. To this end, the Texas Heritage Trails Program rents a 400 square foot booth for all Trail Regions and the THC to share in greeting and educating the public, distributing travel literature and giveaways, and promoting the authentic, meaningful experience of travel in Texas.

Over 24 days of the Fair, some 2.4 million visitors will attend from within and outside Texas. The THTP booth is situated in one of the most popular pavilions, the Texas Department of Agriculture's Go Texan Pavilion, where heritage tourism is naturally branded as a "made in Texas" product. Traffic through the booth is almost constant and sometimes very heavy, requiring two to three staff to work each shift.
